Creative Thinking

CREATIVE THINKING

The primary purpose of this workshop is to understand that everybody can be creative, to create a mindset shift and to unlock Creative Confidence.

Creativity is not a talent. It is a way of operating.

People benefit: they learn how to be more creative. Creativity is linked to a growth mindset, personal wellness and longevity and contributes to own self-esteem.

Organisation benefit: creative people are more productive, efficient and happy. They influence the organisational environment and organisational culture in a positive manner.

Program includes exercises to understand the creative functioning of our brain, scientific theories for understanding and developing human creativity, tools for individual and group creativity, neuroscience of creativity, and pitching of ideas.

The program can be configured depending on the group or specific requirements.

Participants: max. 15 Persons (classroom or online)

Cost: starting from ~~1.400~~ 900 EUR
